RECOVER CAR STOLEN FROM A. MARCOTTE

BANDIT TRIO WHICH TOOK LOCAL MEN FOR RIDE ABANDON AUTOMOBILE FOUND BY POLICE

Frank Jackson, Colored, Accused Of Attempting To Kill
W. T. McQueary

The Oakland sedan stolen Thursday night by three armed bandits who robbed and abducted Arthur G. Marcotte, local garage owner, and George Minor of Chicago was recovered by Cook county police on a deserted road near the outskirts of Chicago early today according to a dispatch received by Deputy Sheriff C. R. Reed.

The car was owned by Marcotte. Several shells for a 38 calibre revolver were found in the car.

The bandits evidently had camped one night in a woods near Monticello where the luggage trunk, carried on the rear of the car, was found Sunday.

Marcotte and Minor were accosted by the armed trio at 11 o'clock last Thursday night at a point on highway 49 just north of the city limits and opposite St. Rose cemetery. They were seated in the car listening to a radio when their assailants leaped out of another car.

Taken For Ride
The trio took possession of the car and forced Marcotte and Minor to ride with them through the business section of this city and south on highway 25. About two miles south of the city they turned off on an infrequently road, throwing Marcotte and Minor into a ditch after taking $40 in cash. They drove away in the local car and the victims made their way to a farm house and were brought to Kankakee by police authorities.

Frank Jackson, colored, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Reed at Centralia and brought back to Kankakee where he is now held in the county jail awaiting hearing on a charge of attempting to kill William T. McQueary, 213 West Perry street, Bradley.

Jackson and McQueary had trouble over a debt of one dollar several weeks ago. McQueary claims Jackson assaulted him when he sought to collect the money due him and that McQueary was saved only by the village police. Jackson "disappeared" after the fracas and it was learned last week that he had taken refuge at Centralia.

INQUEST IS HELD

Deceased Had Eaten Early Breakfast; Died After Re- turning To His Bed

Arthur L. Gelino, age 46, was found dead in bed at 6 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nomi Gelino, 426 East Sixth street, Momence. Coroner Octave J. Cartier conducted an inquest Sunday afternoon at the Harrison funeral parlors where the jury decided that Gelino died of an embolism of the heart.

Circumstances at first indicated that Gelino may have died of unnatural causes. He had arisen at 4 o'clock Sunday morning and partaken of a bowl of bread and milk. He took an apple to his room and ate it after lying down in bed. His mother went into the room at 6 o'clock and found him dead. Dr. Jensen was called and stated that Gelino had been dead for about an hour.

Mr. Gelino was employed as a laborer on the C. and E. I. railroad. He was born in Momence Oct. 25, 1883, and was practically a life-long resident of this county. While spending the summer here, Mr. Risse was taken ill in Kankakee about a month ago and had been a patient in the Danville hospital since.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Hertz Memorial Temple of Kankakee, conducted by Rev. David Creighton. Burial will be made in Mound Grove cemetery.

The son of Peter and Mary Elizabeth (Granger) Risse, he was born July 4th, 1852, near Cleveland, Ashland county, Ohio. When he was about ten years of age, the family moved to Onarga, Iroquois county, where he received his education in the public schools and in the Presbyterian seminary.

He lived for a short time in Davenport, Iowa, an Oak Park, Illinois, later joining his brother, R. G. Risse, in the grain and farm implement business in Kankakee. For the past twenty years, however, he had been engaged in the real estate business in Kankakee and Orlando, Florida. He maintained a home in Florida but spent a great deal of his time in this city.

In 1874 he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Dunlop of Savoy, Ill., who preceded him in death in 1911. Eight children were born to them. Six children, Eva Mae, Merton, Howard, Williston, Lillian and Gordon also preceded him in death.

ESCAPED HOSPITAL PATIENT CAPTURED

Mary Johnson, 66, said to have been a patient at the Kankakee State Hospital for the past twenty years or more, escaped from the institution this morning and was recaptured with difficulty on East Station street not long after by Police Officer Hank Andrews.

Three employees of the hospital, two in a car and one on foot, were following the patient when she was captured by the police officer, and were apparently afraid to touch her. She fought violently and gave Officer Andrews a good tussle before being subdued.

VETERAN VISITOR IS 92, YET STILL IS 'MARCHING ON'

Samuel C. Johnson, 92, Civil War veteran of Marion, Ohio, is visiting at the home of his nephew D. W. Johnson, east of Momence, this week. He recently was a guest at the home of Grant Luke, 633 South Elm avenue, Kankakee. He expects to return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. Johnson served with Company K, 23rd Indiana Infantry. In spite of his 92 years, he is still active and energetic. During an patriotic celebration in which veterans of the Civil War take part, he still dares to ride but marches with the same firm step and erect shoulders of years ago.

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE FOR $5,000 OPENS WITH BIG MEETING

The Y. W. C. A. $5000 maintenance campaign was officially launched Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A. building.

That the Young Women's Christian Association occupies an enviable place in the lives and minds of the people of Kankakee is evidenced by the interest shown by many representative citizens who attended the meeting.

Mrs. R. Y. Allison president and general chairman introduced Miss Marguerite Sylla, traveling city secretary, who was the speaker of the evening. Miss Sylla gave a most profitable talk. She emphasized the fact that Kankakee would not be the same kind of a place in which to live if the Y. W. C. A. was erased from its midst. She also gave some good advice to the team workers, stating that contributors who have monthly salaries might increase their subscription in order to balance the deficit that might come from those who are out of work.

Mrs. Allison followed Miss Sylla with an enthusiastic talk. She said that if this campaign is to be as great a success as all others in the past that all team workers must roll up their sleeves and work, not only one day, but every day of the drive. That the results of such united efforts will be more than rewarded in the end when the $5000 goal is reached and we see our community forging ahead—a place where in we will be proud to live and call our home.

Mrs. Allison wished the fact to be emphasized that no campaign manager was hired this year and that all expenses for the drive were cut down to the smallest possible figure.

A humorous skit entitled "Much Ado About Ducats" was given by members of the Cluga club. It was most clever for the occasion. Miss Ada Nelson, general chairman-secretary, spoke briefly concerning the knowledge team workers should have concerning the Y's activities and how to approach for subscriptions.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. A. J. Oberlin's committee consisting of Mrs. Roy Taylor and Mrs. A. Jensen. Mrs. Chas. Wertz and Mrs. C. M. Tait pouring.

Noon-day reports of the workers commencing Monday will be held at luncheons at 12 each noon until the latter part of the drive.

76TH REGIMENT OF ILL. VOL- UNTEER INFANTRY PLANS REUNION

AT THE COURT HOUSE

S. C. "Urchin" Munhall Of Wa- tseka Writes An Invitation To Old Comrades

The forty-fourth reunion of the Seventy-sixth Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, October 7th and 8th, in Kankakee the home of the regiment, it was announced today by S. C. "Urchin" Munhall of Watseka, secretary of the organization.

An old time reception will be held in the G. A. R. rooms of the Kankakee county court house Tuesday afternoon, October 7th. A campfire will illuminate the court house Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. "A cordial invitation is extended to all who appreciate an up-to-date musical and patriotic program. All roads lead to Kankakee, and all doors of the court house will be open.

Mr. Munhall writes to his comrades as follows:

"Again an octogenarian salutes a sergeant's squad of octogenarians and nonagenarians, survivors of a regiment that made a record during the Civil war.

"When we broke camp on the fairground at Kankakee, over sixty-eight years ago, and marched to the station to take passage for the Southland, 1,008 men and boys were in the line. Official figures received from the pension bureau at Washington shows that there are 26 survivors, residents of eleven states. Following are names: Sergeant Major S. C. Munhall, Company A—Lieut. A. W. Hodge, John H. Kary, George W. Anderson, Edward Carr, Company B—Capt. M. A. Riley, John A. Little, Company C—Thomas Carpenter, Irwin E. Isam; Company D—Corporal Charles Paradia, Corporal Louis Mailoux, Norcliffe Sbard; Company E—Sergeant Frank M. Williamson, Edward Stiles, Manuel C. Bever, Company F—Sergeant H. Warden, Henry Bray, Alvin M. Miller, Henry Y. Swan, Robert N. Smith; Company G—George O. Kinney, James Moran, Lewis Sargent; Company I—Corporal Amos Jeffcoat, Corporal Prevo Ralston; Company K—Joseph Kinman; Company G—No survivors.

"In 1864 the regiment received 156 recruits to fill depleted ranks, increasing enrollment to 1164. Five survive:

"Company D—John B. Secord; Company E—James K. Williamson; Company H—William H. Mikels, William R. Milot, Amos Lochry. No two reside in the same state.

"In October, 1886, we held our first reunion, when 163 registered. In October, 1929, eleven registered from five states. The average age was 87 years. Names follow:

"Co. A—John H. Carr, George W. Anderson; Co. B—Capt. N. A. Riley, the only survivors of 30 commissioned officers: Co. E—Edward Stiles; Co. F—Henry Bray, Henry Y. Swan, Robert N. Smith; Co. H—George O. Kinney, Prevo Ralston, Amos Lochry; Non-commissioned stag—S. C. Munhall, the only survivor of sixteen.

"Father Time has reaped a heavy harvest, taps having sounded for 133 who are sleeping their last sleep 'under the sod and the dew.' Our meeting last year was one of the most enjoyable held, for which all credit is due our new president, John Mayhew, who was elected for life, and the sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War. He is the son of a Company D boy who was as good a soldier as ever carried musket. Company D the "French Company" was the pride of the regiment, brigade, and division. The program was never excelled at a regimental reunion, for which we doff our hats to the musical talent of Kankakee.

"Say, comrade, I want you to accept this as a personal invitation and hope you will accept. You will never regret it, the memory of which will be a happy one and will linger with you to the end. We want to see you, to grasp the hand that pulled a trigger, to gaze on your silvered locks or bald head, to compete in a wrinkle contest.

"The patriotic citizens of Kankakee will welcome you, the Woman's Relief Corps will appease hunger and quench thirst at the banquet. Rosewood toothpicks and two for a quarter cigars from Ben Alptner will be as free as salvation. During the visit, the waters of the beautiful Kankakee river will greet you with a roar as it falls over the great concrete dam. A last shot: will you come. Kindly advise me.

"Here's hoping the evening of your patriotic life will be your happiest days, the sunset bright and glorious."

Your antiquated comrade,
URCHIN

6 BUILDINGS ON ST. ANNE FARM BURNED

OWNER, A. J. PALLISSARD ESTIMATES THE LOSS AT $10,000

SUNDAY MORNING

Fifty Head Of Hogs, Ten Horses, Several Calves And Farm Implementes Are Lost

A group of six large buildings on the farm of A. J. Pallissard, located two and one-half miles west of St. Anne were totally destroyed by fire which broke out about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The farm home was not destroyed.

Ten head of hogs, 50 head of calves, several young calves, all of the implements of the farm, as well as other farm property, was lost in the flames. The damage is estimated, according to the owner, at between $8,000 and $10,000, only partially covered by insurance.

Mr. Pallissard believes that the conflagration started with a small roof fire on one of the buildings, ignited from a spark. For a time it appeared as though the farm house and other buildings scattered about apart from the burning buildings were also in danger, in fact, these buildings caught on fire several times. Furniture and other belongings were carried from the house.

The buildings which burned are as follows: Large barn, workshop, garage, implement shed, milkhouse and silo. Most of the contents were destroyed, including all of the farm machinery housed in the implement shed.

The flames jumped from the barn to a large straw stack about 200 feet away, then jumped to another straw stack on the property of Mr. Pallissard's brother, Henry, which is closely adjacent. His buildings also were threatened but were saved through the efforts of the St. Anne fire department and numerous neighbors.

Lack of water hindered the fire department to a great extent and a tank of water on the farm was used in protecting other buildings on both farms.

Two farm lighting plants in the workshop were destroyed by the flames. The farm was one of the most modern and well equipped of the neighborhood. Mr. Pallissard plans to rebuild as soon as possible.

Rev. R. F. Chapler Is Chosen To Succeed C. H. Yocum As New Leader Of Post

Chebanse, Ill., Sept. 22.—Probably never in the existence of Lauridsen Post has its members had a more enjoyable time than what took place at the Legion Home on Thursday night, September 18th.

Beginning early in the evening Legionaries and the Auxiliary partook of a real "feed" in the form of a potluck supper. Messrs. James Wiles and W. J. Murray representatives of the Oberlin Furniture Co. Installed a new Victor Five Circuit Screen Grid. It was a fine program to which all were treated and Lauridsen Post extend their hearty thanks to the company and to their courteous representatives for their service.

After their program both the Legion and Auxiliary went in to executive session and many important items were passed upon after careful discussion and consideration. The Post agreed upon the annual Legion picnic to be held at Barnett's Grove on the Iroquois on Sunday September 28th. Every Legionaire and his family is cordially invited to attend and help make this an enjoyable occasion.

The Post also agreed to offer two awards in the form of a Legion medal, one to a boy and another to a girl of the graduating class of the eighth grade of the public and private school of Chebanse. Comrade Sigline is chairman of this committee and we feel certain that this will stimulate interest in the school. The award is to be given on the basis of honor, courage, scholarship and service and the student's teacher will assist in the selection of the winners.

Lauridsen Post furthermore signified its intention of sponsoring an American Legion basketball team for the ensuing season. Excellent material is available and we look forward to a successful season. C. H. Yocum was made manager.

FALSE ALARM AT CITY NAT'L BANK

Officer Gene LaFontaine, armed with a machine gun, made a solo trip to the City National bank just before noon today with the newly installed alarm system sounded in the police station. A defect in the adjustment of the electrical system caused the false alarm, it is believed.

Three false alarms were sounded by the new system Saturday. When one of the many alarm contacts at the bank are touched, the vault, money drawers, and doors of the bank are automatically locked and remain so for thirteen minutes. In each false alarm Saturday, all of the locks were closed for the thirteen minute period. It is said that one of the bank employees and a customer were locked in

GRANDDAD WILL HAVE DAY ALL TO HIMSELF TUESDAY

Why not give Granddad a break? On Tuesday, September 23, each year, there is a whole day set aside for Mother.

But what about a thought for Granddad? There isn't one single day on the calendar that Granddad can say is all his. For some reason or other those who planned Mother's Day and Father's Day completely forgot about dear old Granddad. That is, we have lots of days we think of Granddad and do nice things for him, but Granddad hasn't a whole day set aside for himself. But Granddad will have a day for himself this week. For Cyril Maude, thru the Majestic Theatre and the Kankakee Republican, has set aside Tuesday as Granddad's Day in Kankakee. On that day every Granddad in Kankakee, when accompanied by at least one grandchild, is invited to be the guest of Cyril Maude to see "Grumpy" at the Majestic Theatre.

"Grumpy" tells the story of a Granddad who outwits a suave thief. In fact, Grumpy catches this international hijacker with the hair from a woman's head, then ties his hair into a love-knot which unites a charming girl and a gallant young boy.

The thrilling thing in the story is to see old Grumpy give the youngsters, including the thief, cards and spades in cleverness—then outwit them with hardly any effort! And from solving the mystery of the jewel thief, Grumpy turns easily to solving the problem of his grand-daughter's romance!

Frances Dade, recently seen with Ronald Colman in "Raffles," plays Grumpy's granddaughter, and Philip Holmes, who played opposite Nancy Carroll in "The Devil's Holiday," plays the young man who woos Frances.

All right—there's the situation. Granddads of Kankakee. You see you have the opportunity to point out to the younger generation that the giddy flappers and drug store cowboys don't know everything—and you'll be able to show these youngsters there's life in the old boys yet!

So get set to come to the Majestic Tuesday as the guest of Cyril Maude and the Kankakee Republican. Granddads will be guests; grandchildren will pay the regular admission price into the Majestic. For it is to be distinctly understood that no one-sided wife—Spokane Spokesman Review.

STARCH FACTORY EMPLOYEES MUST WEAR RUBBER HELMS

Inventor of Plane
Bartholomew Cristofori was an Italian harpsichord maker and the inventor of the hammer action used in the modern pianoforte.

No great amount is known of his career. He was born in Padua about 1600, and early served an apprenticeship as an instrument maker. After following that work for some years in Padua he began to be known elsewhere. About 1687 Prince Ferdinand, son of the Grand Duke Cosimo III, persuaded him to remove to Florence.

It was during the Florentine period that he made his first pianos. Descriptions and engravings of the time show that the invention was correctly ascribed to him. A grand pianoforte by Cristofori is said still to be preserved in Florence. He died in that city in 1731.

Famous Old Roman Road
The Appian way is the oldest and most celebrated of all Roman roads. It was begun by Appian Claudius from a woman's head, then ties his hair into a love-knot which unites a charming girl and a gallant young boy.

Hint for the Home
Women may lead in literature, advice, give glowing, fat girls, etc. but there is still one province where man reigns supreme.

It was flitting about 30 degrees to the starboard and complaining of severe pains in her left side. After much coaxing I got her to reveal what the trouble was. She said she had carried in a bucket of coal.

I told her good. I was furious. I told her never to let me hear of her carrying in another single bucket of coal as long as she lived.

Her life quivered and I thought perhaps I had gone too far. Then I told her that if she wanted to carry in the coal it was all right with me, but I wanted her to carry in two buckets at a time in the future.

Santiago, Chile, Sept. 22.—P. Two American aviators were arrested at Concepcion today, with two Chilean army officers and three Chilean passengers in an airplane piloted by the Americans. All five were charged with plotting the revolution which the government announced had been put down.

Names of the Americans were not made known by the authorities. The government issued a lengthy communique which said an attempted revolt yesterday against the administration of President Colonel Carlos Ibanez had been frustrated and the instigators imprisoned.

WATER WAS TOO COLD AND HE CHANGED MIND

Chicago, Sept. 22.—P. Frank Seidler, tired of life at 31, went down to the lake yesterday to commit suicide. He almost drowned. He was pulled for a leap into the water, but changed his mind after feeling how cold the water was. He started back toward the pier and accidentally fell in.

A policeman saved him, for which Seidler expressed deep gratitude.

REASON FOR SON OF HOOVER

Washington, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Dr. Joel T. Boone, the White House physician said today a complete diagnosis of the illness of Herbert Hoover, Jr., had disclosed a small tubercular infection in the chest.

The diseased area is small, Captain Boone said. Since the diagnosis has been made early, there is every reason to view the outcome of the President's sons illness optimistically.

The condition was held to be a order.

Diagnosis was not completed, however until this week.

Doctor Boone said early suspicion of a tubercular infection were confirmed.

He will stay at the mountain camp probably until frost comes and then will be brought to the White House for another complete examination. Future treatment will be decided at that time.

Dr. Boone and the patient had gained weight and was in much better condition after the one week of rest and regular diet.

In the meantime, young Hoover has taken a leave of absence from his business connections as vice president of the Western Air Express.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover Jr., today arrived from her home in Pasadena, California, and joined her husband at the Presidential camp. Their three children were left in California.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued today at the office of the county clerk for Robert E. McCormick, 26, and Ivy Innes, 23, both of Chicago; Stanley Ames, 27, Rosville, Ind.; and Florence Rice, 31, Clinton, Ind.

YOUNG CHINK'S TROOPS ENTER TIENTSIN CITY

Peiping, China, Sept. 22.—(AP)—A 30-year-old adventurer, son of one of China's most widely known adventurers, upset the political apocryphal today and stage-managed a situation from which observers predicted he would emerge the greatest profiteer.

The new youthful figure in the blood-soaked Chinese arena is Chang Hsueh-Liang, son of the old Manchurian war lord, Chang Iso Lin, and himself now governor of Manchuria, professing loyalty to Nanking and the antinationalist government there but with his sympathies actually in doubt.

Pressing southward from Manchuria yesterday 10,000 of his troops overran sections of Chihli province, containing this ancient capital, and occupied Tientsin, port where a great percentage of northern Chinese customs are collected.

As the troops entered Tientsin several Shansi troops of Yen Hsin-Shan, head of the northern coalition which has set up a government in northern China in opposition to Nanking, left the city for the Shansi fastness. They were not disturbed by the new arrival.

Approach of Manchurian troops to Peiping recalled to residents here the day, 27 months ago, when Chang's father, Chang Tso Lin, marched out of Peiping with his troops and retreated to Manchuria, leaving the old northern capital to the advancing victorious southern army with its allegiance to Nanking.

Chang Tso Lin's life after his leave-taking then was of brief duration. His son, Hsueh-Liang, assumed the governorship of Manchuria after his assassination, and after months of doubt Nanking flags appeared at Mukden. There followed the trouble with Soviet Russia over the Chinese eastern railway, during which Nanking rendered Chang some aid.

During the last six months, while Nanking has been engaged in a life and death battle with troops of Yen Hsueh-Liang and the northern coalition, Chan has sat peacefully at Mukden.

His father frequently profited from such situations as these.

SECRETARY HYDE COMMENTS ON THE GRAIN SITUATION

Washington, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Consideration of any possible official action to prevent depression of the American wheat market by foreign governments was held in abeyance today pending investigation of Russian wheat operations by the business conduct committee of the Chicago Board of Trade.

Responsibility for making such transactions impossible was placed by Secretary Hyde upon the exchanges themselves, but he said it was his duty to see that American institutions were regulated to prevent them.

Before leaving yesterday on a brief trip to Michigan the agriculture secretary said investigation of the Russian wheat transactions showed a total of 7,500,000 bushels had been sold short during a period of four days by the All Russian Textile Syndicate. During the record, he said, wheat prices were depressed five cents. He indicated further investigation would be made of the Russian deals by the department on the strength of a statement by E. V. Belitsky, president of the textile syndicate, that the operations had extended over a period of months. Commenting on the claim that the short sales constituted legitimate hedging on cash sales in other markets, Hyde was sharply critical of Russian exportation of wheat at a time when that government, he said, "is rationing its people and doling out food on food cards."

Hyde said the Russian sales probably were not responsible for all of the five cent drop during the four days studied. He maintained, however, that they contributed greatly to a "bear psychology" which depressed "a market which was trying to rise."

The secretary may extend his trip to Chicago, making possible a conference some time this week with officials of the Board of Trade.

DID YOU KNOW THAT CAST IRON GROWS? IT DOES

Chicago, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Cast iron that "grows" is one of the vexations of industry which the American society for steel treating believes has been corrected.

J. S. Vanick and Paul D. Merica reported to the society's convention today that a way had been found to stunt the growth of iron.

Cast iron "grows," they explained, because of changes in the material's chemical composition induced by intermittent heat. Large castings have been known to grow as much as three inches within a year.

An alloy of nickel, copper and chromium has been developed, the metallurgists reported, to prevent the cast iron expansion.

LEAPS FROM HUDSON RIVER BRIDGE; DIES

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Norman J. Terry, 24-year-old professional daredevil, was killed yesterday in a 215-foot leap from the New Fort Lee bridge over the Hudson river.

Thousands of motorists and pedestrians saw him leap from the center of the span, shoot downward feet first until near the surface of the river then flatten backward, striking the water with terrific force, breaking his spine.

Terry mounted the partly completed structure late Saturday night and hid himself to elude watchmen who would have prevented the jump. He wore a bathing suit, trousers and gymnasium shoes. About his waist he had a corset-like arrangement to protect his ribs and a wooden device was fastened to his back to protect his spine.

Making his way along the narrow catwalk to the middle of the cable span, Terry poised for a moment with a large banner in his hand. Holding the banner above his head to act as the feather of an arrow and keep him perpendicular, he jumped.

He was pulled from the water by James Murray, his manager and another who watched the leap from a motor boat. At the Medical Center surgeons said he was dead of a fractured spine.

Descending Scale

When little Jimmy was asked what he wanted for Christmas he promptly replied, "A dog."

"Oh, no," said they, "wait until spring. A puppy would do so much better in the springtime. Think of something else you want."

"Well, then, a horse," suggested the youngster.

Again they murmured, "Wait till we move to the country and you may surely have a pony, but think of something else now. What else do you want?"

Jimmy was visibly reluctant to give up his requests, but he finally proposed a substitute. "Aw, well, then, I guess I'll take a baby brother."

COLD AND RAIN FOLLOW STORM OFF THE FRENCH COAST

Paris, Sept. 22.—(AP)—The great storm which ravaged the French coast for three days blew itself out during the night and gave way to a spell of cold and rain.

During its three days winds ranging velocity from 80 to 100 miles per hour brought mauling to the homes of nine fishermen and sailors and did a damage to the coastal country estimated at millions of francs.

The French fishing fleets were the heaviest sufferers from the gale both as to men and material.

At Quiberon, southern Brittany, damage done to the harbor was estimated at a million francs. Even southeastern France and the sheltered sunny Riviera felt the force of the storm. A violent thunderstorm ravaged Cannes, flooding cellars and keeping firemen busy for hours pumping out water.

The winds subsided toward midnight, but the seas still ran mountain high.

LATEST MARVEL OF SCIENCE IS COSMIC RAYS USE

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

(Associated Press Science Editor)
Pasadena, Cal., Sept. 22.—(AP)—The latest marvel of science—discovery of a practical use for cosmic rays—was revealed to the National Academy of Sciences today by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, Nobel prize winner in physics and president of the California Institute of Technology.

They are used in a new kind of barometer and promise, he said, to extend the science of weather forecasting.

The discovery was largely due to a trip far into Canada toward the north magnetic pole from which Dr. Millikan returned a few days ago.

When science discovers something new, he remarked, man is sure to find a use for it. But finding a use for cosmic rays astonished even members of the National Academy, for this radiation is still one of the mysteries, so new that scientists disagree about its origin. The rays seem to come from outer space, and are so powerful that they penetrate about 700 feet of water and many inches of lead—X-rays are pigmies by comparison. Yet cosmic rays pass straight through man without being noticed. They are detected with electroscopes.

Dr. Millikan, one of the leaders in proving their existence equally upon mountain tops, in balloons and deep in earth, believes they come from the tremendous energies expended in creation of matter somewhere in space.

Some other scientists hold they can come only from annihilation of matter, probably at millions of degrees in the hot centers of stars, where substance is packed tightly at densities undreamed of on earth.

"From the first," Dr. Millikan said, "we ourselves have thought the evidence satisfactory that these rays are other waves of frequencies a thousand times and more than those of the hardest X-rays, but others have thought that they might not be other waves at all, but high speed electrons."

"If they were the latter they would of necessity be influenced by the earth's magnetic field, and should be stronger near the magnetic pole than at low latitudes. I went, therefore, this summer to the settlement which is much the near-

SHIFTLESS ED WURLER COLLAPSED TODAY, WHEN HE OVERHEARD MAYOR DOOLITTLE SPOUTING HIS IDEAS ABOUT THE LOCAL UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION

ECONOMIC COLLAPSE IN CUBA PREDICTED

Washington, Sept. 22.—(AP)—An early economic collapse in Cuba accompanied by revolution was held inevitable by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, today unless immediate American governmental influence is exerted.

"Poverty and unemployment are feeding the flames of revolt," the senator, who has just returned from a visit to the Island Republic, said. "Charges of extreme tyranny, disregard of human life, trial without jury, dishonesty in office, no free ballot—are rampant. These charges are staggering because of their universality with respect to usurpation of power and disregard of fundamental political rights."

"If the Cuban question reaches the political crisis that is threatened, the American people may prepare themselves for revelations of most startling character."

A castle which suggests the romance and magic of the age when knightly was in flower should stand boldly on the summit of a precipitous rock or hide mysteriously among the shadows of a mighty forest.

Chambord, near Blois, for this reason is one of the most romantic of the French chateaux on the Loire. It is surrounded by mossy walls 24 miles around and its forest has nearly 3,000 acres.

The towers of pinnacles, lanterns, and towers are visible for miles—looking on the dim horizon like a misty oriental city. The grand circular stairway which winds upward in two directions at once is the glory of its interior—but there are 64 staircases in all.
